

A Read To Me Leaf Dance

Your child may enjoy dancing as a leaf as you read.

I am a leaf. The wind is my friend.
We play and dance as I float away from my tree. You can Dance with me, too.
The wind blows us up, up into the air. We turn this way and that way as up and down we go. We skip across the grass and play tag with the wind. We dance and twirl around and around. Then slowly, we float down and rest on a soft bed on the ground.
